

City College Southampton's statement on how it is using the 16 to 19 Tuition Fund from September 2022

The purpose of this statement is to set out how City College Southampton will use its 16 to 19 tuition fund allocation to support students who have been academically disadvantaged due to coronavirus (COVID-19).

How the College will use the 16 to 19 tuition fund

The 16 to 19 tuition fund will be used to provide small group tuition for students aged 16 to 19 who have not yet achieved a grade 5 or above in English and/or maths. The provision will not be limited to tuition for English and maths, but will also be used to help progressing students on vocational courses where assessment may have been deferred because of lockdown. Students with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) - including those aged 19 to 24 who require additional tuition to help them catch up with their studies - will also be supported by this provision.

Tuition groups will comprise of no more than seven students and will be delivered face to face, online or through a blended delivery model.

Examples of some of the Tuition Support on offer will include:

- GCSE exam resit preparation
- Functional skills assessment preparation support
- Academic skills support and development
- Vocational catch-up sessions for knowledge and practical skills development

Tuition Support offered will be based on an individual need's assessment, the identification of an individual starting point, clear learning goals, expectations and outcomes

Our commitment

The College is committed to ensuring the tuition fund is used in accordance with the Government's guidance on the 16 to 19 tuition fund by:

- producing this statement setting out how the fund will be used to support the most disadvantaged students
- publishing this guidance on the College website
- recording the use of the fund, including references to individual students who receive support, the needs of those students, the number of hours of tuition delivered and retain the evidence of the tuition provided
- deliver the extra tuition and spend the allocated funds in the academic year 2022/2023
- notify the Education Skills Funding Agency (ESFA) of any underspend from the Fund for it to be reclaimed
